

ABC YourSpace Privacy Collection Statement

The Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) is bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act). We collect and hold your personal information, that is, information about you such as your name, contact details and records of our dealings with you. We collect this information for the purpose of research, providing our products and services, seeking support, otherwise engaging with you as one of our contacts, and generally running the ABC.

Our Privacy Policy sets out our approach to managing your personal information. You can access our Privacy Policy at <http://about.abc.net.au/abc-privacy-policy/>.

We may use your personal information in order to provide you with information about activities, products, services and events that may be of interest to you. You may opt out of receiving our communications at any time by asking us using the contact details below.

You may refuse to provide us with some or all of your personal information, however, this may limit the ways in which we can interact with you, including whether or not you can participate in ABC YourSpace.

The ABC is assisted by a variety of third parties in conducting its activities. Some examples of the types of third parties include technology service providers including Vision Critical Communications Pty Ltd and its Canadian parent company, Vision Critical Communications Inc.

These third parties may be located in Australia or overseas locations, including but not limited to Canada, Singapore and the USA.

Our Privacy Policy explains how you may seek to access and/or correct the personal information that we hold about you, as well as how to make a complaint about a breach of our obligations under the Privacy Act, and how we will deal with complaints.

If you have any questions, comments or complaints about how we handle your personal information, you may contact our Privacy Officer at privacy.abc@abc.net.au